

Radio Catskill: Our Commitment to Your Privacy

We take your privacy seriously and want you to understand how we do and don't use information about you. Below you'll find information about our commitment to ensuring the privacy of your personally identifiable information (such as your full name, address, email address, telephone number, and/or other identifying information). If you have any questions or concerns, please send us an email at manager@wjffradio.org.

Radio Catskill may ask for your personally identifiable information (like your name, address, email address, phone number, or credit card information) but we will never willfully disclose any of this information to a non-affiliated third party without first receiving your permission (unless required by law). This means, we may email you to join a new newsletter list or ask you to renew your membership when it expires, and we may share your information with third party vendor service providers or Radio Catskill affiliates such as NPR. In these circumstances, the information is provided for the sole purpose of -- and only to the extent necessary for -- delivering the requested goods or services to the user, delivering communications from Radio Catskill to users who have 'opted in' to the receipt of these communications, providing services for and on behalf of Radio Catskill, or serving other internal Radio Catskill purposes.

These third party vendors are required to maintain the privacy of all such information in their possession or control and can only use the information on our behalf for the purpose that we have contracted them, for example sending you a newsletter or a membership renewal letter. They are not authorized to use your information for any other purpose.

Radio Catskill may use your personally identifiable information only for conducting activities such as those stated above, or for internal marketing and promotional purposes. We will not sell, share, or trade our donors' names or personal information with any other entity.

This policy applies to all information received by Radio Catskill, both online and offline, on any platform, as well as any electronic, written, or oral communications.

To the extent any donations are processed through a third-party service provider, our donors' information will only be used for purposes necessary to process the donation.

Radio Catskill also may disclose personal information if required to do so by law or if it believes that such action is necessary to (a) comply with the law or with legal process, (b) protect against misuse or unauthorized use of Radio Catskill's services, or (c) protect the personal safety or property of users of Radio Catskill's websites/digital platforms, the public, or Radio Catskill and its employees.

If you do not want this information collected and used by us for the disclosed purposes, contact manager@wjffradio.org. Please recognize that if you select to "opt- out," you may not be eligible for certain activities for which the personally identifiable information is needed.
